

The Society for Calligraphy, Los Angeles, presents our 2021 Master's Lecture Series with
DONALD JACKSON

*From Royal Scrolls to the Saint John's Bible to "Have I had my breakfast yet?"
Master Calligrapher Donald Jackson shares lessons and insights from a lifetime of working in letters.*

The 2021 Master's Lecture Series consists of four virtual lectures:
August 21, September 4, September 18, and September 25, from 11:00 AM to 12:30 PM PDT (7:00 PM to 8:30 PM in the U.K.)

Lecture 1, August 21: LEARNING and LUCK
Early studies and training opportunities, inspiration and influences; traditional materials and techniques.

Lecture 2, September 4: EARNING and LUCK
Quills, gold leaf and parchment: Who needs them? Keeping afloat over the years, making things in ways that matter to you and for people who don't need them (until they do).

Lecture 3, September 18: SPREADING the WORD
Teaching, sharing, showing and telling; students and teachers learning from each other.

Lecture 4, September 25: FACING the DEMONS
*What next? Where will these marks I am making take me to?
The role of playing with letters with an open heart.*

Registration for the virtual presentations will be announced when available.
