

WORKSHOP - A WAY OF CREATING WITHOUT WORRY

Amity Parks - 19th & 20th April, 2023

Supply list:

Because we are using a variety of tools and techniques, I could tell you to bring everything in your studio. So please, bring what you can manage from the list below without going out and buying a bunch of stuff. I'll bring extras and we'll share or buddy up for whatever you don't have.

- Paper- a few sheets each of Strathmore 400 series drawing paper (9x12) or whatever you have at home and a few sheets of (9x12) smooth watercolor or heavyweight paper that you have already.
- Ruler or triangle
- Scissors/X-acto knife/small cutting board
- Your favorite writing tools (pens and nibs, ruling pen, automatic pens, brushes)
- Flat and round watercolor brushes in a few sizes
- 9x12 or so piece of plexi or smooth plastic to us as a palette.
- Water container/pipettes
- Paper towels/Tissues
- A small spray bottle
- Small scraps of matboard or old credit card to spread stuff
- Apron, if you are so inclined
- Hair dryer, (not everyone, just a few)
- Framing corners
- Drawing board (if you use one at home)
- Masking tape/glue stick or PVA
- Pencils/Erasers
- Brayer (if you have one)
- Inks, black sumi, walnut, acrylic inks, etc. (a variety of colors is good)
- Gouache, acrylic paint, metallic powders, etc...(whatever you have, we can share)
- White gesso (small jar, we can share with each other)
- Matte acrylic medium (small jar, we can share with each other)
- Pastels/colored pencils/graphite sticks (optional)
- Some different papers, whatever weight & color you have
- Texts of different lengths that mean something to you
- A few photos, book pages, maps, or other flat items for collage

If you want to use your own images for the photo transfer exercise, please email me a few of your images that I will print ahead of time for you on my laser printer. Otherwise I will bring a variety of images for you to use. If you have a laser printer, you can print a few small (2"x3" or smaller) photos for yourself to fit your texts. (reverse the images before printing if needed)

A supply fee of $10 will be charged to cover the full color handouts and misc. supplies.
